When filing motions for summary judgment, parties shall proceed in accordance with the following:

A. Before filing a motion for summary judgment or responding to such a motion, the parties are urged to familiarize themselves with Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317 (1986), Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc. 477 U.S. 242 (1986) and Matsushita Electric Industrial Co. Ltd. v. Zenith Radio Corp. 475 U.S. 574 (1986). An excellent summary of these cases appears in Street v. J.C. Bradford & Co., 886 F.2d 1472 (6th Cir. 1989). See also Schwarzer, Summary Judgment under the Federal Rules: Defining Genuine Issues of Material Fact, 99 F.R.D. 465 (1984).

B. Facts stated in the statement of material facts must be supported with citations to either the pleadings, interrogatories, admissions, depositions, affidavits or documentary exhibits. The appendix shall contain an index and shall be tabbed.

C. Counsel are discouraged from employing elaborate boilerplate recitations of the summary judgment standard or lengthy string citations in support of well established legal principles. Instead, counsel should focus their analysis on a few well chosen cases, preferably recent and from controlling courts. For cases and other sources cited, the briefs should contain a link to the citation. Cases should not be attached.

D. The Court cautions the parties that it is not the Court's function to "figure out" what evidence they rely upon in support of claims or defenses. It is incumbent upon the parties to make substantive arguments, with specific references to the record, in support of each claim or defense asserted.

1. Response briefs must be filed and in opposing counsel's hands by: 12/10/10.

6. Final Settlement Conference date and time: 3/23/11 at 2:00 pm.

Parties must exchange settlement offers, in writing, prior to the Settlement Conference, and discuss them prior to the conference.

At the conference, parties (and insurance company representatives) must appear and must have full settlement authority. Such persons and entities are further ordered to prepare for and participate in the settlement conference in objective good faith. For the Defendant, the representative must have final authority, in the representative's own discretion, to pay a settlement amount up to Plaintiff's last demand. If this representative is an insurance company, the representative must have final authority to commit the company to pay, in the representative's own discretion, an amount up to the Plaintiff's last demand if within policy limits, or if not within policy limits, the limits of the policy, whichever is lower.

For a Plaintiff, such representative must have final authority, in the representative's own discretion, to authorize dismissal of the case with prejudice, or to accept a settlement amount down to Defendant's last offer, whichever is higher.
